

Enclosure System

A pair of enclosure designs developed for varied internal system configurations.

Both designs prioritize protection, ventilation, and structural integrity.

Form factors are optimized for ease of installation and maintenance.

Created with manufacturability and long-term use in mind.

These enclosure are designed for one of USA based client for various electronic devices.

Designed according to application of devices and to increase aesthetic value of product.

